The University may, in the interest of learning in Sanskrit, start or conduct a college or research Institution or a Pathashala in any territory outside the State of Maharashtra, with the approval of the Government concerned.

About University

Kavikulaguru Kalidas Sanskrit University (KKSU) was established on 18 September 1997. It is named to pay rich tribute to Legendary Sanskrit Mahakavi Kalidasa. KKSU is an institution dedicated to the advanced learning of Sanskrit. It is located at Ramtek which falls under Nagpur District, the second capital of Maharashtra. It is the first Sanskrit University of Maharashtra. History of Establishment: The former Prime Minister of India, P.V. Narasimha Rao, who is the great Scholar of Sanskrit, was keen on setting up an independent Sanskrit University in Maharashtra. With encouragement from Mr. Rao, the late CM of Maharashtra Shri S. Naik took up the issue and appointed Dr. S. Jichkar as one member committee to give a study report for establishing the Sanskrit University in Maharashtra. Dr. Jichkar prepared the study report and a non-formal University act for the establishment of Sanskrit University in Maharashtra. One of the Prominent Scholar of Sanskrit and Eminent personality of Vidarbha region Dr. Pankaj Chande was the Founder Vice-Chancellor of Kavikulguru Kalidas Sanskrit University.

The UGC recognized University with 12B & 2f status and accredited by NAAC with B++. It gives recognition to the educational institution for specialized studies in the jurisdiction of Maharashtra & Goa. It is a prominent research centre for researchers.
